RE: Behavior Code for Honor Groups

Congratulations again on being selected to represent your family, music group, school and community by being a member of an All-Southern California Honor Group.

The responsibility of membership in an Honor Group goes far beyond just excellent musical skills. Your responsibility extends to making every effort to insure that this special musical experience is the finest one for all of our members, section coaches and support personnel. It is up to each one of us to always be considerate of others and respectful toward everyone.

To achieve a superior level of commitment, all Honor Group musicians will abide by the following expectations:

1. Be on time with all necessary materials
2. Be ready to rehearse when rehearsal begins.
3. Behave in a courteous and respectful manner.
4. To be attentive and to refrain from unnecessarily disturbing the rehearsal.
5. No smoking, drinking or drugs are allowed at any time.

Print Name

I agree to follow the above rules of conduct. I further agree that it is my responsibility to conduct myself with pride and to represent my family, my musical group and my school with honor. I understand that if I fail to adhere to this Honor Code, I may jeopardize my future opportunities for participation in honor Groups and that my school director will be notified as well as my school Principal.

I have read and discussed the All-Southern California Behavior Code for Honor Groups. I understand that should it be necessary for my student to be removed from the Honor Group, I will make arrangements to pick up my student immediately. I will make full restitution for any property damage that my student causes and I will be responsible should any medical or dental treatment be needed as a result of my student's actions.
